Miscellaneous:

Sara made a motion to order a copy of How to Regulate Junkyards from the Local Government Center, Joe seconded the motion and all were in favor.

Sara noted a recent article published in the Union Leader that reported that through a Forest Service program, the Canada Street Cemetery had all of its gravestones cleaned up. She further noted the article did not report that this was an Albany owned cemetery. Kim Guptill, Cemetery Trustee, joined the meeting and told the Board she had not been notified as she had previously that the project would take place.

Joe asked the AA to contact Forest Ranger, Bob Boyd again to report the trees being cut on the Swift River on the Sweezey property.

Steve Knox called into the meeting and asked the Selectboard to appoint an alternate Selectperson to the Planning Board in the case of an absence by the
