Miscellaneous:

Jack received an invitation to the North Country Council's Annual Meeting. Both he and his wife, Camille will attend the meeting to be held on October 8, 2009 at the Attitash Grand Summit.

Sara Young-Knox would like to note that bird feeders should be brought in at night until the bears go into hibernation for the winter. Lee and June said they bring theirs in at night and have not had any confrontations with bears this summer.

Jack updated the Board on the actions of Carroll County Transportation. They have begun interviewing candidates to fill the position of operations manager vacated by Theresa Kennett. Jack said they hope to fill the position after a second round of interviews next week.

At 4:45 p.m., Jack made a motion to adjourn, Sara Young-Knox seconded the motion and all were in favor.
